

RemoteEarth.net

University of Idaho
College of Natural Resources

Effective Communication for Smoke Management in a Changing Air Quality Environment

An inter-agency training workshop for personnel who need to work with the public and other agencies to develop smoke management/air quality approaches. Sponsored by the US National Park Service.

Great Smoky Mountains National Park, September 16 - 18, 2008

Day One

- Introduction - Part 1 | Part 2 | Part 3
- Smoke Management Challenge and the Need for Leadership
Pete Lahm, US Forest Forest
- Fire Emissions: Composition and Human Health Effects
Bill Jackson, US Forest Service
- Visibility and Smoke
Mike George, US National Park Service
- Air Quality Regulations
Mike George, US National Park Service
- US EPA Perspectives on Smoke Management and A Brief Summary of Smoke Management Programs in the Southeast
Rick Gillam, US Environmental Protection Agency
- Air Regulator Perspectives on Developing a SMP (NC)
Laura Boothe, North Carolina Department of Environment and Natural Resources
- Emissions Inventories and Their Use in Decision Making and SIP Development
Bill Jackson, US Forest Service
- Smoke Management Plans, Arizona's annual meetings
Ron Sherron, Bureau of Indian Affairs
- SEUS Prescribed Fire Councils - Their Role, Purpose, and Importance in Addressing Smoke Management and Air Quality Issues
Mark Melvin, The Jones Center

Day Two

- Workshop Recap
Susan O'Neill, Natural Resources Conservation Service
- Smoke Management and the Legislative Process
Pete Lahm, US Forest Service
- Basic Smoke Management Practices: The First Level in a Progressive Approach to Prescribed Fire Smoke Management
Pete Lahm, US Forest Service
- Smoke Management Program: The 2nd Level in a Progressive Approach to Managing Smoke from Wildland Fire
Gary Curcio, North Carolina Division of Forest Resources
- The Enhanced Smoke Management Program: The top level in a progressive approach to prescribed fire smoke management
Pete Lahm, US Forest Forest
- Federal Considerations Under the Clean Air Act

Meredith Dahl-Fishburn, Office of the General Counsel, USDA

- Negotiating Smoke Management Rules in a Changing Air Quality Environment
Todd Bryan, The Keystone Center
- Interest Based Negotiation
Todd Bryan, The Keystone Center
- Objective Criteria and Human Dimensions
Todd Bryan, The Keystone Center

Day Three

- Workshop recap
Paul Schlobohm, Bureau of Land Management
- Negotiation Dynamics and Creating Opportunities for Negotiation in Your Settings
Todd Bryan, The Keystone Center
- Roundtable of Questions